

This course presents an introductory approach to the development of art processes for young children from birth through age 8. The developmental aspects of art expression, the role of the teacher in fostering and nurturing creative art expression are emphasized. Other topics include the development of creative expression, the development of art processes and products, and the factors that impact the

Letter Grade, Pass/No Pass