

In this course, students have the opportunity to study and apply computer-compatible stenographic or voice theory to recognize and create stenographic outlines for standard legal testimony terms and phrases necessary to attain writing speeds of 80 wpm.