

PHIL 004: Comparative Religions

This course is an introduction to the critical, comparative study of religion. The student is introduced to the responses offered by the major Western and non-Western religions to perenni ā