
POLI 004: International Relations

Political Science 004 is a survey of the ways and means by which the contemporary international scene has developed. Topics such as nationalism, imperialism, war, the world economy, the environment, and developing nations are covered as students have the opportunity to gain a fuller understanding of the political, social, and economic relationships among nation-states. Particular emphasis is given to the foreign policies of the U.S. and its relationship to foreign powers.
